

March 2018

Dear Friend of the Duwamish:

This year marks the twelfth anniversary of the Duwamish Annual Gala & Art Auction and the tenth anniversary since the construction of the Duwamish Longhouse Cultural Center—the only remaining traditional longhouse—in the City of Seattle. Our annual event is designed to celebrate the contemporary and traditional culture of Seattle's First People—the Duwamish - (dx̓d̓w̓ʔabš) “People of the Inside.”).

This year's gala features music, dance performances, auctions, guest presenters, and a catered dinner. Your generous support will sponsor the event's overhead costs as well as the costs to operate the Longhouse for the upcoming year. That includes art and cultural activities' such as the annual tribal canoe journey—“Power Pull to Puyallup 2018.” Also, this year's MC features acclaimed Native American actor, Mr. Ray Thunderchild, his film excerpts, exhibits, and more! It promises to be a memorable occasion.

Without your continued support, we could not have completed our building and kept the doors open for so long. Your generous support comes with benefits. First, we offer a table for your staff to join us and enjoy the performances and more. Also, all charitable donations are tax-deductible to the Duwamish Tribal Services. And we acknowledge you in our marketing advertisements and on our new website <http://www.duwamishtribe.org/>.

We support the promotion of our community partners and continue the many public benefits we provide. Today, annually, people from all over the world visit us; and follow us on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/duwamishlonghouse/>.

Enclosed you will find a sponsorship form and if you need any further information, please contact us at (206) 431-1582 or by E-mail to events@duwamishtribe.org.

Thank you most sincerely,

Duwamish Tribal Services
